

UNICO National Exhibit Features Art Work From Nine New Jersey Residents

By UNICO
9/28/2009

Members of the public are invited to attend and view an art exhibition at UNICO National headquarters from October 1st-3rd, featuring the work of UNICO members, UNICO National President Andre' DiMino recently announced. UNICO's national headquarters is located at 271 US Highway 46 West, Suite A-108, in Fairfield, NJ.

The exhibition, which features mixed media from 11 members of UNICO, is free and is entitled L'Arte D'Unico.

Nine of the 11 members with work on exhibit are from Bergen County and include:

Carmela Pasqua Cohen (painting, Montclair UNICO)
Renato Biribin (Plainfields UNICO, Theater exhibit)
Steve Pelonero (Photography, Passaic Valley UNICO)
Ken DeFilippo (painting, Rutherford UNICO)
Joe Kovacs (painting, Garfield UNICO)
Geraldine Rosaria Lipari (Sculpture, Rutherford UNICO)
Leah Tinari (painting, Rutherford UNICO)
Crista Pisano (painting, Woodcliff Lake UNICO)
Barbara Pisano (folk art, Woodcliff Lake UNICO).
Two members from Pennsylvania
John Nicholas Bistran (photography, Scranton UNICO)
Albert Anthony Ondush (painting, Carbondale UNICO)

"Throughout history Italians have made an indelible impact on all areas of art," said DiMino, a former Woodcliff Lake Councilman. "Many of the most revered and honored artists have been Italian. Our L'Arte D'UNICO Exhibition is our own celebration of that rich and deep artistic heritage. All are welcome to attend and enjoy the outstanding work from talented artists who are UNICO members."

UNICO National is the nation's largest Italian American service organization with local chapters throughout the United States. It was founded in 1922. Its volunteer members work to support charitable, educational, and service projects while promoting Italian heritage and combating negative stereotyping.

Photo above: A photo by Little Falls resident Steve Pelonero that will be on exhibit.

Photo courtesy of UNICO